Dear Sir/Madam

OPPORTUNITY TO PARTICIPATE IN ENVIRONMENTAL SKILLS TRAINING WEBINAR

The Savitribai Phule Pune University Research Park Foundation(SPPU-RPF) and the Australian Institute of Water Sciences (AIWS) India P. Ltd together will be delighted to have a pleasure of your company at our vitally important webinar to be held from 03.00pm IST onwards on the Saturday 06th February 2021.

The purpose of this webinar is to invite Industrial organisations, managements and environmental stakeholders to participate in a unique collaboration to provide much needed internationally accredited environmental skills training in Water, Waste Water, Solid Waste, Hazardous Waste and E-Waste. etc.

As you know, natural resources and environmental pollution and damage represent the single greatest challenge facing the great continent and nation of India

This webinar will not only invite you to join us in this remarkable initiative, but also demonstrate how your institution and your students can be benefited directly both in environmental improvements, accreditation and financially as a result of your participation in this program.

We are very much looking forward to seeing you.

Regards
