SAVITRIBAI PHULE PUNE UNIVERSITY

BOARD OF STUDENTS' DEVELOPMENT

Savitribai Phule Pune University Campus NCC Unit invites application for Enrolment

What is NCC?

NCC stands for National Cadet Corps. NCC is the largest youth organization of the world which is regulated under the ministry of Defence, GoI. It was formed in 1948, under the National Cadet Corps Act of 1948 and since then it is shaping the lives of millions of cadets.

Aims of NCC

Currently NCC is an organization which is committed to train young minds the dignity and valour of adventure and discipline. Here the qualities of bravery and self-discipline are instilled in Cadets from a very young age. The certificates (B and C) earned in NCC is itself beneficial.

Benefits of NCC

During the Course

- You get to attend the Annual Training camps (ATC) and gain new experiences
- You get to march at the Rajpath during the Republic Day event
- If selected you get to attend the Para training camps
- You can get chance to trek in various hill stations and get basic and advanced mountaineering courses
- There are youth exchange programs to give you International outreach
- Development of Officer like Qualities (OLQ's)

Benefits in Career

- NCC cadets get reservation in several competitive exams.
- Additional marks are awarded for different NCC certificates during Indian army soldier recruitment.
- Preference is given to candidates with C certificate in various state government jobs.
- Marks are awarded in paramilitary forces if you possess a NCC certificate.
- You get a special entry in SSB interview if you have a C certificate
- NCC cadets can get recruited as Civilian Gliding instructors/Girl Cadet Instructors/ Whole Time Lady Officers.

Irrespective of all above benefits a cadet of NCC always remains a standout in a crowd of millions.
