The Program Coordinators of (Maharashtra & Goa States)

Sir/Madam,

With reference to the D.O. letter dated 22nd October 2024 from the National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) and the email received from the NSS Section (attached), we wish to inform you that the NDRF has developed an e-Training program aimed at equipping NSS volunteers with essential skills to assist local administrations and disaster response teams. This program includes 25 training modules that cover various disaster scenarios and is available in both Hindi and English.

The training materials have been uploaded to the NDRF YouTube channel and can also be accessed directly at the following link:

<https://ndrf.gov.in/disaster-awareness>

This initiative will significantly enhance the preparedness and response capabilities of NSS volunteers during disaster situations.

In this regard, you are kindly requested to circulate this information to all NSS functionaries under your jurisdiction and ensure that all NSS volunteers are made aware of and encouraged to complete the training using the provided link. Additionally, we request that you create events for these training sessions on the MYBharat Portal and track their progress within your institutions.

We also encourage you to share photos, videos, and newspaper clips related to these training activities across NSS social media handles to further promote awareness and participation.

Dear Madam,

The Hon'ble Home Minister of India, in his opening address during SDRF Conference held on 7th & 8th April, 2022 had directed that the NDRF shall formulate an e-Training programme for NSS Volunteers, so that they could be trained to assist local administration and disaster response Forces. In accordance with the directions of the Hon'ble Home Minister, 25 modules of training content of various disaster scenarios (in Hindi & English languages) has been prepared and uploaded on I-Got and YouTube channel of NDRF.

2. This e-content in Hindi and English Languages can be accessed on YouTube channel of NDRF through the following link: <https://ndrf.gov.in/disaster-awareness>.
3. It is, therefore, requested that concerned authorities of NSS may kindly be directed that they can use this content to impart training to NSS volunteers.

With regards,
