

NOTICE

For the Backlog Students of MA 2019-2021 Batch

Dear students,

Read the following information and instructions carefully.

Students must clear all backlog examinations by May 2023.

Backlog in 1st, 3rd and 4th Semester:

Internal Examination Backlog:

1. Internal examinations will be conducted during the subsequent respective semester. For example, 1st semester internal examination will be conducted in subsequent 1st semester.
2. If you have backlog in only internal examination, you must pay tuition fee for the backlog course.
3. You must attend the course classes regularly.
4. You must appear for the internal examination whenever the course teacher declares it.

Semester-End Examination Backlog:

1. You can appear for backlog semester-end examination of any course from any semester in any subsequent semester. For example, you can appear for 3rd semester-end backlog examination in 1st or 2nd semester.
2. You can appear for semester-end examination of any course from any semester in any subsequent semester. If you have backlog in only semester-end examination, you need not pay tuition fee for the backlog course.
3. You must submit the examination form and appear for the semester-end examination whenever the Department declares the semester-end examination.

Both Internal and Semester-End Backlog:

1. If you have backlog in both internal and semester-end examinations, you must pay tuition fee for the backlog course.
2. You must attend the course classes regularly.
3. You must appear for the internal and semester-end examination whenever the course teacher and the Department declares them.

Backlog in 2nd Semester:

Internal Examination Backlog:

For the M.A. batch 2019-201 semester-end examination was not conducted.

1. If you have backlog in internal examination, you must pay tuition fee for the backlog course.
2. You must attend the course classes regularly.
3. You must appear for the internal and semester-end examination whenever the course teacher declares it.

IMPORTANT:

- You must contact the respective course teachers, Department office from time to time regarding online classes schedules, examination form notification and examination schedule.
- You must check Department Home Page on the university official website from time to time for the notices.
- Semester – II teaching begins from 15th June, 2021. Any student having backlog papers in the second semester should immediately contact the respective course teachers and the department office.
